Universal Test Target

UTT

about | codex | specs | service | forum | contact | links

skip intro

Universal Test Target

The Universal Test Target (UTT) is a single test target which is designed to provide insight into the complete image quality of all types of high end cameras and scanners following the current ISO–standards.